Voice Prompts

Voice prompts not professionally scripted or recorded usually sound like this:

"Thanks fer cahling. Yer cahll will be ansehded in the orda rehceived..."

Consider adopting a different approach and let professional voice talent develop your phone image—and not "Ethel" from accounting.

Here's what you can expect by "TeleBrandingSM" your voice prompts:

- Increased acceptance of your firm's telephone automation.
- A return of the warmth and personality automated systems tend to take away.
- Convey an image consistent with your media advertising.
- Set yourself apart from others in your industry.
- Add the finishing touch that your expensive telecom equipment, company and callers so aptly deserve.

Add call capacity without installing new equipment!

Put automation into your firm's telephone presentation-today! Especially convenient if your inbound call needs are short term (such as with an advertising campaign, one-time event, new product launch, etc.) Consider outsourcing some or all of your calls to Advertel instead of investing in expensive telecom equipment.

AutoMatt[®], Advertel's blended 600+port inbound/outbound interactive voice response (IVR) system offers you true 24/7 inbound service, with 100% quality control!
